PROLOGUE

In the preparation of this volume of THE CRIMSON, the members of the class have tried to portray life as we have lived in and loved it at East Greenwich Academy.

Our task has been made easy by the willing helpfulness of the entire student body and the Faculty.

If we have conveyed through these pictures and paragraphs something of the sense of happiness which has been ours in these student days, the reward for our labors will be adequate.

Graduating Class

EAST GREENWICH ACADEMY

VIRGINIA BURLINGAME ALLEN

EAST GREENWICH, R. I.

"Gooey" I — Bryant & Stratton

Four years ago Virginia came to E. G. A. a shy, young freshman. She was then known to be a member of the "Gooey Club" and the name "Gooey" has been hers ever since. The usually fine playing of this year's team is undoubtedly due to its center. Virginia has showed the school remarkable talent along the theatrical line by her impersonations in both the Adelphian and the Senior Plays. Next year Bryant & Stratton College will be fortunate in having her with them. Everyone wishes Virginia the best of luck in her business career.

ROBERT NEWTON APPLETON

BOSTON, MASS.

"App" — Bowdoin

This smiling young fellow came from Boston and sought an education in our halls of fame at the same time the class of 1926 came into organized being. In these four years "App" has made a host of friends among the students and the faculty. "App" has been a fine student and athlete during his stay and it may be mentioned—a great ladies' man. His favorite studies are Math and Spanish in which he has honorary mention. Bob's activities at E. G. A. have been many as may be seen by the list at the bottom and his great pep at all socials has always helped liven them. After leaving the Academy he plans to enter Bowdoin College, 'way down in Maine.

LEONARD DAVID BAKER

WATERTOWN, N. Y.

"Dave" Syracuse University

Stop, Look, Listen! you bookworms and grinds. Here is a living proof that a fellow can excel in both athletics and studies. This smiling chap needs no introduction, for his fame in football, basketball, and baseball is well known by every student. Leonard came to us last September and entered into the spirit of E. G. A. Baker has supported all socials and has helped to make them enjoyable by his pep and his witty remarks. Much credit is due Leonard and we expect to see him make a name for himself as he continues his studies at Syracuse next year.

Motto Committee, (4); Baseball, (4); Football, (4); Basketball, (4); Senior Play, (4).

OSBORNE WARREN BEARSE, JR.

COTUIT, MASS.

"Jim" Tufts

Although a member of our class for but one year, Bearse is very popular among the student body. A gust of wind from Cape Cod blew him in, and, as he had nowhere else to go, we let him stay. During his visit, he has taken a leading part in everything athletic, social, scholastic, and mischievous. He is known for his contagious laughs and harmonious singing, which raises the roof of Olney Hall. Someday we'll hear of Dr. Bearse as he intends to enter Tufts next year. Good Luck! Bearse.

Football, (4); Baseball, (4).

HOPE CLAUDIA BECKER

MIDDLEBORO, MASS.

"Hopie" Tufts

Who is this capable looking Senior? Why, Hope Becker, of course! Although Hope has spent only her Senior year with us, we have learned to like her quiet way and hope she is not utterly disgusted with us. She is one of the two boarding girls in our class, and the Eastman ought to be truly proud of her. We are not sure of her calling in life, but owing to the winning way with which she portrayed the character of Miss Hays, in the Senior Play, we do think she would make an ideal preceptress at E. G. A.

Senior Play, (4); Motto Committee, (4).

ETHEL FRANCIS BREARD

EAST GREENWICH, R. I.

"Bobbie" Bryant & Stratton

Yes, this is Ethel Breard. She came to us in the middle of the Sophomore Year and we are very glad she did. She has characterized her sojourn with us by various love affairs, much giggling, and played the part of Ethel Spelvin, in the "Charm School." Oh, yes, and good marks, too. During her stay here we have never caught her with one powderless spot on her nose or one curl out of place on her head. Quite a record, we call it. We are not sure but that Bryant & Stratton College may see her next year. It is to be doubted whether her employers in the future will be able to keep their minds on their work.

Senior Play, (4); Social Committee, (4).

GEORGE WAYMAN BRINSON

PROVIDENCE, R. I.

"Bozo" Oberlin College

We now come upon our well-known friend, "Bozo," who came to us last fall from Providence Tech. He has quickly caught the spirit of the school and made a remarkable number of friends in a short time. Whenever a party is caught in some riotous or secretive doings, we are sure to find "Bozo" among the guilty ones. He has livened more than one social by his music and witty remarks. Next year, we will hear of the doings of George at Oberlin, (Ohio), where he will be found studying at Oberlin College.

Crimson Board, (4); Senior Play, (4); Motto Committee, (4); Orchestra, (4).

DUNCAN BOSWORTH BRYANT

PROVINCETOWN, MASS.

"Dunc" Boston University

Here is a representative from "Way Down East." If he is a fair sample of what Easterners are, we feel sorry that we have not more of them here. Duncan has been with us two years, acquiring E. G. A. polish to distribute over his native wilds. For two seasons he has ably defended our goal posts from the invading foe. "Dunc" accomplishes a great deal in school, goes out for football and track, but somehow he always gives the impression of "Father Time" himself. He is never too busy to serve on committees or to help out a schoolmate. It is easy to predict a bright future for him, as Duncan will win friends everywhere.

Senior Play, (4); Football, (3), (4).

JOHN ALBERT CHADWICK

JEWETT CITY, Conn.

"Chad" Wesleyan

Well, here is "Chad," who needs no introduction to anyone connected with or allied in any way to this Academy. He has been one of the most active members in the East Greenwich Academy, Class of '26, being president of this class for four successive years. Who is the man who arises early in the morning, brings our mail up from the Post Office, and lengthens or shortens our class periods? No one else but "Chad." His attractive smile has won him many friends who will remember him long after graduation. John has selected for his life's work, the solemn occupation as a minister and intends to enter Wesleyan University at Middletown, Conn., where he will undoubtedly shine.

Class President, (1), (2), (3), (4); Senior Play, (4); Adelphian, (3); Football Manager, (3); Salutatorian, (4).

ALDEN CHURCH DUDLEY

PROVIDENCE, R. I.

"Dud" Worcester Tech.

"For he's a jolly good fellow" is the phrase that best explains the popularity of "Dud." He came to us in the middle of our Junior year from Hope High and has turned out to be one of our great social bugs and four-letter men. Not only being good in athletics, our "Dud" has been a constant plugger at his studies. His ability as an actor has been proven by his conscientious work in the Junior Play last year, resulting in his playing the leading role in the Senior Play, "The Charm School." "Dud" expects to enter the hardware business after commencement, where in due time, we hope to hear of him as manager of a great chain of stores.

Senior Play, (4); Adelphian, (3); Baseball, (3), (4); Basketball, (3), (4); Track, (3), (4); Football, (4); Class Will, (4); Crimson Board, (3); Banquet Committee; Social Committee.

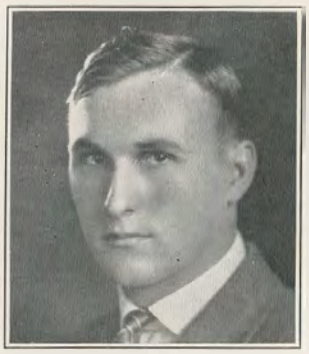

SADYE FOGEL

EAST GREENWICH, R. I.

"Billie" Undecided

This vivacious young lady has for four years toiled through E. G. A. She is always getting a quorum for class meeting, selling tickets for some class benefit, and doing anything and everything for the sake of the class. Sadye has made more baskets this year than any other girl on the team. We feel that this year's team owes much to its captain. Next year will likely find her at Rhode Island College of Education. We cannot imagine Sadye, a staid school teacher, but realize that she will make a success of anything she undertakes.

Basketball, (1), (2), (3), (4); Adelphian, (3); Senior Play, (4); Secretary, (2), (3), (4); Crimson Board, (3); Cheer Leader, (4); Orchestra, (3), (4).

IRVING MORTIMER HART

EAST GREENWICH, R. I.

"Irvie" Business

This vigorous looking gentleman has been with us four long years. He came along with a bunch of other students fresh from Grammar School. Hart's outstanding characteristics are noise, whole-hearted participation in what he undertakes, sincerity, kindness to his friends, and appreciation of a good joke. He and Swan always cooked up more mischief at E. G. A. than was healthy. Irving was always up-to-date with his class dues and was an enthusiastic worker in class activities. He expects to continue working for a short time, and in the next five or ten years, if we do not hear of a grocery store owned by Hart, we shall be greatly disappointed.

Adelphian, (3).

BESSIE KAUFMAN

EAST GREENWICH, R. I.

"Pussy" R. I. College of Education

This is "Pussy," one of the two basketers representing '26. She is a sweet and obliging miss: boy, can she dance? Well, we guess! Her dancing isn't limited to the Charleston, either. Bessie is a snappy dresser, seldom being seen twice with the same dress. No one can say that "Pussy" is quiet, nor does anyone want her to be, except in class meetings. Either R. I. State College of Education or a Normal School will see our Bessie next fall. But it is our opinion, she'd make a better dancer or model than a school teacher.

Basketball, (2), (3), (4); Senior Play, (4).

RUTH EVELYN KIRSTEAD

EAST GREENWICH, R. I.

"Custard" Business

Ruth is one of those people with whom the difficulty of becoming acquainted is more than compensated for by the value of the friendship when formed. She has been with us two years and has kept the class average up on our Honor Roll. Ruth's business ability, ready smile, and hard work will certainly assure her of a successful career in whatever part of the business field she decides to enter this fall.

Motto Committee, (4).

STANLEY HOYLE LANE

SHAWOMET, R. I.

"Spud" R. I. State College

The worst of this breaking up of a class after four years of close association is the fact that we will be deprived of daily seeing fellows like "Spud." Quiet, reserved, and owning a large interest in class work, Stanley has impressed the writer as a chap worth knowing. We owe him an apology for misunderstanding why he and "Asthma" could not agree; but since Stanley moved in with Mitchell he has proved to be a paragon of roommates. Stanley showed up to great advantage in the role of the girl-struck twin in the Class of '26 Play, "The Charm School." We're looking for more news of Stanley constantly in the future. Every class reunion will feed our interest in the fellow whom we have grown to appreciate by the fellowship and camaraderie he has shown.

Senior Play, (4).

EDITH MARY LAWSON

EAST GREENWICH, R. I.

"Widdy" Business

We admire quiet Edith for her ability to maintain that calm reserve which has characterized her throughout her stay with us. That asset alone has endeared her to us all, for yet being reserved, she has always supported the class in all of its duties and socials. The noted Greek proverb "Not Words but Deeds" best explains the nature of "Widdy." Edith has decided to go into business after graduation where she will undoubtedly be as successful as she has been here for four years. Good luck Edith.

Motto Committee.

PHILIP CORBIN LENZ

EAST GREENWICH, R. I.

"Phil" R. I. State College

Behold! here is the famous Philip Lenz, king of the road, the track and of the fairer sex. "Phil" needs no introduction to any one of us, for he is one of the most popular students in the Academy. Lenz left us for one year and attended Moses Brown but decided last September that there was no place like E. G. A. His ability as a track man has placed East Greenwich on the pedestal of fame. Not only a good athlete but also an honor student, "math" being Lenz's favorite subject. He intends to enter R. I. State College in the fall and we hope to hear of him doing the same high calibre of work there, that he has done here.

Baseball, (3), (4); Track, (3), (4).

ANTHONY LAWRENCE PISCATELLA

NEW LONDON, CONN.

"Tony" Worcester Tech.

Out of the wilds of an old whaling town comes this big boy of athletic renown. He has made us his friends and pals ever, because of the greatness of heart, held in store for all who have chosen his friends to remain. He is a friend through class, quiz, and strain. Out on the gridiron, in the midst of the fray, our "Tony" has battled to help win the day. In class work he has served both nobly and well, to make '26 in all things excel. Two seasons in baseball he has worked with all vim and each year sees a "G" awarded to him. Dear reader, as you these pages peruse, and over these photos of school groups you muse, remember 'twas "Tony" who secured them for you, that your recollections might ever hold true of all the dear faces you saw in these halls, and classes collected within storied walls. To "Tony" now may we ever give praise and wish him success through all of his days.

Crimson Board, (4); Baseball, (3), (4, Captain); Football, (4); Class Will, (4); Basketball Manager, (4); Adelphian, (3); Social Committee; Banquet Committee.

RUTH BICKNELL PROCTOR

EAST GREENWICH, R. I.

"Gooey" II. Bryant & Stratton

And here we have "Gooey" the second, formidable guard of the girls' basketball team. Few opposing forwards starred, due to our Ruthie. Not only in basketball has she proven herself a capable guard but also in warding off competition for the heart of a worthy, young Winsorian. She is a never failing source of cheerfulness and funny (?) stories. If you don't believe it, visit Rhetoricals some Friday afternoon, when she is entertaining Row E. What we cannot understand is why her name seldom helps to lengthen the Detention list while those of her audience appear more frequently. "Gooey" expects to attend the Bryant & Stratton College next year and there is no doubt in our minds but that the worthy institution will benefit by her presence.

Basketball, (2), (3), (4); Social Committee, (4); Class Prophecy.

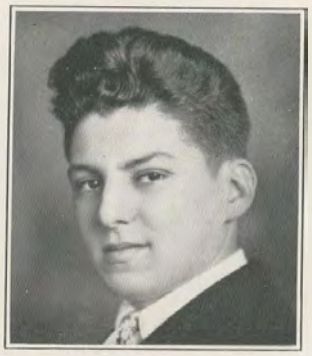

NARINO RIVERA C.

PANAMA CITY, PANAMA

M. I. T.

Panama's loss was East Greenwich's gain when Rivera came to the Academy last fall. He immediately settled down to study, but still had some time to participate in our athletics and attend some of our socials. Rivera may always be seen with his buddy, Sucre, telling of some funny incident. His favorite study is Math and in this subject he is a wizard. He has caused great consternation in many a Math class by attempting to explain his theories in his unmatured English, which he has not quite mastered as yet. Narina plans to enter M. I. T. in the fall to further his education and become a noted engineer.

Basketball, (4); Track, (4).

BENJAMIN JACOB SILVERMAN

EAST GREENWICH, R. I.

"Bennie" R. I. State College

This beaming countenance belongs to no other than the great "Bennie" Silverman. He needs no introduction to anyone of us for his ability of gaining recognition is astounding. He has been one of the hardest working members of our class, showing his ability as Advertising Manager of THE CRIMSON. Silverman's hearty support to his class, athletics, and socials during his four years at E. G. A. is a fine example of school spirit. Next year "Bennie" will travel the road between East Greenwich and Kingston, (R. I.), where he will join the crowd at the State College. We hope to hear of him doing great things there as he has done here. Good luck, "Bennie!"

Crimson Board, (4); Adelphian, (3); Senior Play, (4).

WILLIAM BISHOP SMITH

JAMAICA, N. Y.

"Bill" Brooklyn Polytech.

Yes, no doubt about it, this is "Bill" from Jamaica, the star fullback of E. G. A. His good nature and irresistible smiles have found their way into the hearts of all of his classmates and teachers. Besides the talent he has shown us at various socials, the school can find much in "Bill's" athletic career to be proud of. Smith made a great hit last year in his role of "Bill de Butch" with the Adelphian Players. (He looked like that hard yegg in the play.) We know that Brooklyn Polytech. will sit up and take notice when our "Bill" walks in. It goes without saying that he will make a great success in this line of work in the near future.

Football, (3), (4); Adelphian, (3); Social Committee.

EDMUND ALEXANDER STEERE

COTUIT, Mass.

"Alex" Rensselaer Polytech.

Now, whom have we here so laughing and jolly; with smile that's infectious and cheeks red as holly? We see him in classes, on campus, in game, and ever and always the smile is the same. In dorm and in school, he finds many a chum because of his willingness to see the work done. In springtime, the season of baseball and chase, he puts in his service at guarding third base. His evenings he spends in a room rather small, which is on the top floor of old Olney Hall. His speech and his thought are set very hard towards his domicile down at the end of Cape Cod. In May his wandering tendencies ran to the purchase of that which men call a "can." To date he has run o'er no man or beast, yet we fear he will crash through his wallet at least. From all of these clues you may readily guess that our hero is Edmund Alex, no less.

Baseball, (4); Football, (4).

JAMES ELMER SWAN

EAST GREENWICH, R. I.

"Duck" Northeastern University

With bustle and hustle, with haste to and fro, "Duck" Swan tears around and makes the day go. With laughter and wise crack he tortures our ears, and with those same weapons respects not our years. Sage wisdom and wit form his bundle of stores and proof daily he gives that he has a lot more. With ladies and girls he's become quite a sheik and often inspires them with laughter and shriek. Despite this fine trait which might set him apart, he's made himself known for his bountiful heart, for never to date when he heard his class call has he failed to give his time and his all. When '26 came to study from books, "Duck" appealed to us then because of his looks. Now we are Seniors and yet he remains the pep of class life and often the brains; for he is in truth fair Genius' child although many times his plans are quite wild. This fall he enters Northeastern for law, a study which cultivates a prominent jaw. And with him will go our best wishes true. Good luck and good fortune, "Duck," ever to you!

Adelphian, (3); Crimson Board, (3), (4); Senior Play, (4); Class Historian, (4); Social Committee.

RAYMOND EUGENE TANNER

EAST GREENWICH, R. I.

"Doc" Brown

Gaze upon this serious and good-natured youth who is always a source of information to his classmates on any subject at any time. He is no other than "Ray" Tanner, one of the great Math sharks of the school. "Ray" has gained hosts of friends during his four years at the Academy by his ready wit and pleasing manner. We haven't seen "Ray" out for athletics but he has been a constant supporter of our socials and games. Tanner is planning to be a cub at Brown, where he will further pursue knowledge in order to become a great engineer.

Class Treasurer, (2), (3); Adelphian, (3); Valedictorian.

RUTH REMINGTON VAUGHN

DAVISVILLE, R. I.

"Ruthie" Undecided

Let us introduce our nightingale. We consider Ruth a wonderful benefactor to our school, for it is she who saves us from listening to endless biographies in Rhetoricals, by her singing. Everyone loves Ruth and loves to hear her sing. But how is it that she finds time to practice when she is so busy driving a certain car around town? Ruth is not only a fine singer but also a capable scholar. She hopes to continue her musical career next year and we certainly hope she will; but we're a little doubtful about it, if we judge anything by the wearing of a fraternity pin.

Senior Play, (4); Quartet, (3), (4); Adelphian, (3).

BENJAMIN MONROE WALPOLE

EAST GREENWICH, R. I.

"B. M." R. I. State College

Chug, chug, chug, who's that chugging up the street? Oh, it's our Benjamin in his so-called Ford. Ben is one of our classmates who has given us a true interpretation of school spirit. Ben is present at all socials and helps to make them more enjoyable, with his witty remarks. He is very studious and many mornings before breakfast may be seen in one of our classrooms in deep contemplation over his lessons. We often wonder if Ben intends to take to college his Boston bag, which has been his constant companion during his four years here at the Academy. Next fall Walpole intends to become a Frosh at R. I. State, where he will undoubtedly shine, as he has here.

ELLEN WELCH

WILLIMANTIC, CONN.

"Nellie" Undecided

We are indebted to Willimantic for sending us Ellen. Three years ago she came to live at the Eastman. Pickles and cake parties were frequent in those days but now Ellen spends her time exercising her authority as a dog of the "dog patrol." While here she has majored in music and sometime in the near future you may expect to see an advertisment of some famous musician whose accompanist is "Miss Ellen Welch."

MAMIE BELLE WRIGHT

EAST GREENWICH, R. I.

"Mamie" R. I. College of Education

Now we come to Mamie B. Wright. (She most always is.) Some of us remember her when she wore pig-tails down her back in the grades. She is always happy and most always laughing. She's a good sport and also ready to lend a helping hand. Mamie is our chief representative at movies and "Charleston" exhibitions. This is the girl who took the town by storm by her acting in the Adelphian Play last year, and again this year as leading lady in the "Charm School." She plans to enter R. I. School of Education but we would suggest that she find a position with The Albee Stock Company.

Adelphian, (3); Senior Play, (4); Class Prophecy.

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1926

The Freshmen year of the class of 1926 was a rather quiet year, as most members were shy and green. With the following officers and Mrs. Clifford, as faculty adviser, they did, toward the end of the year, enjoy an entertainment in the "gym" and a ride to the Pier.

MR. JACKSON, President
MISS LORRAINE LAWTON, Vice-President
MISS RUTH VAUGHN, Secretary
MISS VIRGINIA ALLEN, Treasurer

The Sophomore year was more successful. The students coöperated with each other and many good times were had, including a Freak Day, Field Day with the Class of '27, and a Class Day. The officers for this year were:

MR. CHADWICK, President
MISS ALLEN, Vice-President
MISS FOGEL, Secretary
MR. TANNER, Treasurer
MR. PIPER and MISS PENTECOST acted as class advisers.

With a boat ride as the opening event of the third-year, the class soon formed and made its plans for the year. The same cabinet was elected with Miss MacBrayne and Mr. Dawson, class advisers. Under the supervision of these advisers the "Adelphian Dramatic Society" was formed. On May 26, 1925, "Never Touched Me" was presented at the Odd Fellows' Hall, with great success.

History of the Class of 1926—Continued.

The following were participants: the Messrs. Chadwick, Silverman, Appleton, Dudley, Smith, Hart and the Misses Allen, Wright and Fogel.

Miss Tait and Mr. Perry were elected as class advisers, together with the following cabinet for our Senior year:

MR. CHADWICK, President
MR. APPLETON, Vice-President
MISS FOGEL, Secretary
MISS ALLEN, Treasurer

At the first meeting of the year, Miss Kaufman, Miss Vaughn and Mr. Swan were elected as a committee to make and give the laws to the Freshmen, which consisted mostly of the wearing of the green.

At the reception given by the faculty on September 25, 1925, in the Eastman Dormitory, a committee of Senior girls and boys was elected to assist in the introduction of the new members of the Faculty and to serve refreshments. Music was furnished for the evening by Al Brayton's orchestra. The following week witnessed the first social of the year, given by the Senior Class in the gym for the student body. Games were played and refreshments were served by members of the class.

On December 6, the Seniors and their guests rode to Saunderstown, where a social was held until 11 P. M. The journey homeward was prolonged by a dense fog and several of the cars did not return until after twelve. This caused quite a disturbance among the members of the Faculty and school body.

In addition to the events already mentioned, a Food Sale was held on March 24; a social at Allenton occurred March 26, and a recital by Mr. Brigham was offered in the Academy Chapel on April 15, 1926. A play, entitled "Charm School," was given on May 11. The following took part in this play: Messrs. Dudley, Chadwick, Baker, Appleton, Swan, Lane and Misses Wright, Allen, Becker, Kaufman, Fogel, Breard and Vaughn.

After the annual banquet the Commencement program will terminate the final gatherings of the Class of 1926, and it is with regret that we leave the "vine-clad walls of E. G. A."

S. B. F.

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1927

The class of '27 began its reign at the East Greenwich Academy with Mr. Robert Perry as adviser; Mr. Bates, President; Mr. Appleton, Vice-President; Miss Klammer, Treasurer, and Miss McGraw, Secretary. In early October a truck ride to Point Judith Country Club was enjoyed. After this event, school routine continued as usual, until the last of May, when the class decided to have a ride to Narragansett Pier. The Freshmen and their friends attended this affair, which was the last one of the year, as school closed on June 14, 1924.

The school year of 1924-25 opened on September 8. A week later a class meeting was held at which Mrs. True and Mr. Johnston were elected advisers. The officers elected were Mr. McGraw, President; Miss Miner, Vice-President; Miss Klammer, Treasurer, and Miss McGraw, Secretary. Miss Klammer left school before the end of the year and Miss Ericson was made Treasurer.

After the election of Mr. Marley, as adviser, in place of Mr. Johnston, after his resignation from the school, the class held regular meetings and progressed rapidly. A ride to Narragansett Pier was held the Saturday following mid-year examinations. The class attended this affair with their friends at the Parish House of St. Peter's-by-the-Sea. At the next class meeting a motion picture, "Scaramouch," was decided to be given in the Star Theatre. Messrs. Olson, Card, Luz and McGraw took part in the vaudeville stunts which were highly successful. This was the final event of the year which closed June 12, 1925.

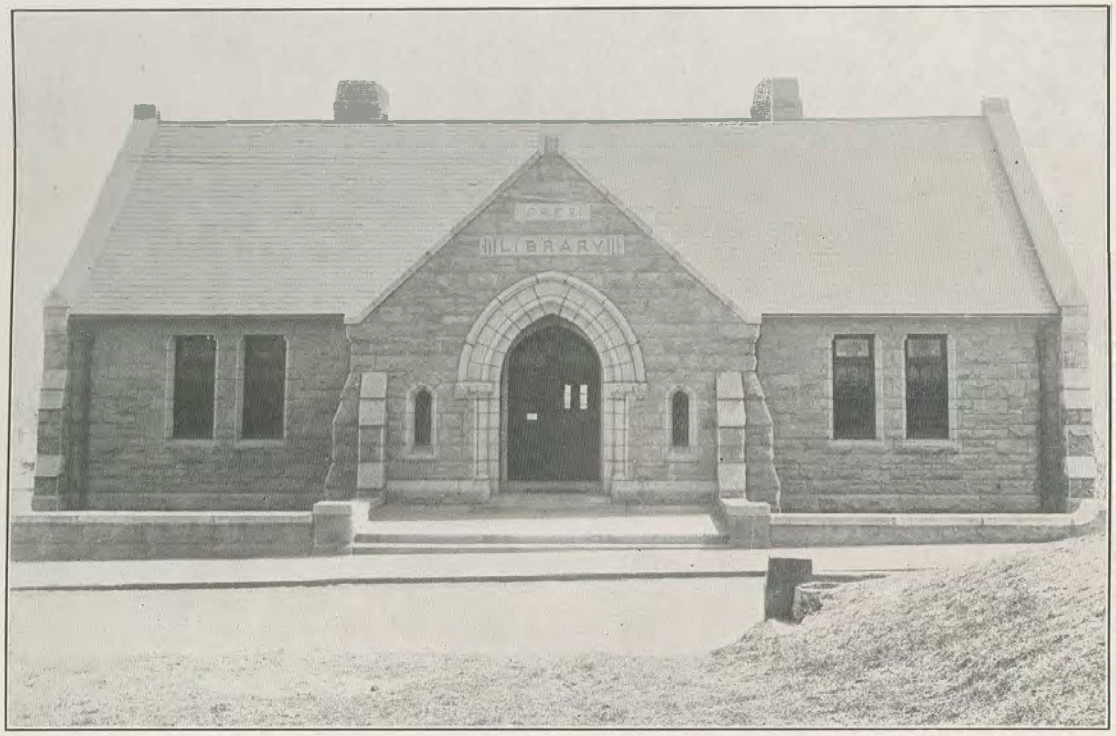

The class of '27 held its first Junior class meeting about two weeks after school opened in September, 1925. Mr. and Mrs. Schulmaier were elected class advisers; Mr. McGraw, President; Miss Miner, Vice-President; Mr. Olson, Treasurer, and Miss McGraw, Secretary. Class meetings were held regularly in Room 11, a room famous for such proceedings. A successful social was given in the Gymnasium October 9. School activities continued with no extraordinary events until March when the class decided to have a truck ride. The Freshmen were invited to share this party with the Juniors and their guests. This ride will be an everlasting memory to those who enjoyed the flashlight rays on the return journey. The next event of the season was a Food Sale, held April 21, at the East Greenwich Dairy on Main Street. The next thing planned by the Junior Class is a moving picture to be given as soon as possible.

This will probably be the last event of the Junior Class for the year of 1925-1926.

M. M. M.,
Secretary, '27.

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1928

We, the class of '28, after a very successful Freshman year, reorganized on September 22, 1925, with an enrollment of 27 members. We missed the friends who had not returned, but gave the newcomers a hearty welcome.

Paul Pierce was elected President; Elsie Jones, Vice-President; Lillian Pharnes, Secretary, and Howard Ericson, Treasurer. Mr. Newbegin and Miss Hume were chosen as our class advisers.

A Hallowe'en Social was given in the Gym by representatives of all the classes. Many of the Sophomores distinguished themselves in the "Chamber of Horrors," and also when refreshments were served. "A spooky time was had by all."

A social was given by the Sophomores in November. Many interesting games were played and refreshments served.

We returned from our Christmas vacation with the resolve to do better, and study harder.

We had been disappointed in not having a Christmas Party because of the early vacation, and so early in March, we decided to go and see "No, No, Nanette," a musical comedy, then playing in the Providence Opera House. It proved interesting and amusing and everyone enjoyed a pleasant afternoon.

On April 30 a picture entitled, "Let's Get Married," was given by the Class, in the Star Theatre, and candy was sold. It proved very successful.

As the year is drawing to a close, when we shall no more be Sophomores, we begin to look forward to the coming year, when we shall be Juniors, and hope that it will be as happy a year as this one has been.

We sincerely hope that all of our friends will return after a long and pleasant summer vacation to join us in our work and good times at E. G. A.

HISTORY OF THE CLASS OF 1929

The first few weeks at E. G. A. were very confusing, but later we became accustomed to its ways.

At the first of the year the Faculty gave a reception to all students. Here the Freshmen were introduced to the school.

A Senior helped us in our first meeting and we elected the following officers: Harold Shogren, President; Mary Swain, Vice-President; Dorothy Appleton, Secretary; Frederick Lenz, Treasurer. We elected Miss Pentecost and Mr. Woodworth as our advisers.

The Seniors this year, wishing to show their authority over the "Little Freshies," requested the girls to wear green bands and the boys green skull caps. The Freshmen showed their intelligence by meekly complying with these orders.

A Hallowe'en Party was given October 29, 1925, in the Gymnasium. The Freshmen started their reputation of competing successfully by carrying away one of the four prizes.

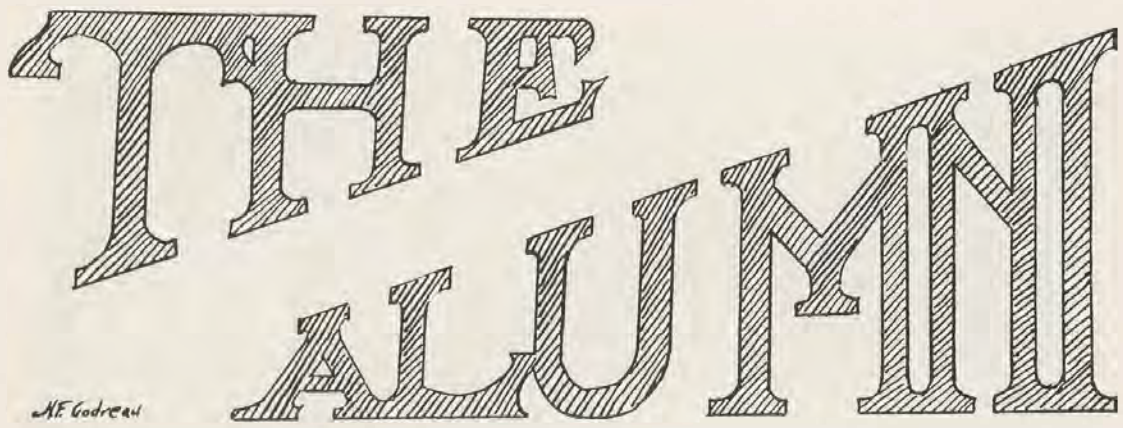

The Freshmen held a very interesting social in the Gymnasium December 11, 1925. It was original and largely attended by the school.

The Juniors kindly invited the Freshmen to unite with them to go on a ride to the Pier. We shared the expenses with the Juniors and thoroughly enjoyed ourselves.

On May 4, 1926, the girls of the Academy, including a large class of Freshmen girls, gave a gymnasium exhibition, which was very successful and showed many months of hard training.

Altogether the Freshmen have had a very enjoyable and happy year at E. G. A.

We wish to thank the Faculty and our two advisers for their assistance in our first year at the Academy.

CLASS OF 1925

James J. Bacos is a freshman at Tufts College this year. Jimmy was always a hard worker and we wish him great success.

Madeline M. Bengston has a position in Providence. She is a regular working girl now.

Salome M. Chase is attending a Physical Culture School in Boston. She must have received her inspiration in the "gym" class at E. G. A.

Marguerite Collette, Vice-President of her class, has entered Bryant & Stratton Business College in Providence. We know Miggie will make an ideal business woman.

Raffaella D'Attore is attending the R. I. College of Education. Who knows—E. G. A. may have an alumna as a teacher in the future.

Conrad F. Dubray is a freshman at the University of New Hampshire. The halls seem quiet without him.

Ralph H. Farnham is a freshman at Marietta College, Ohio. We hear reports of certain amours.

Harriet Haven is taking a Post-Graduate course in Lynn Classical High School in Massachusetts.

Grace Kettelle is at home. We suspect she is learning housekeeping.

Andres Martin is in the freshman class at Lafayette College, Easton, Pa.

Frank B. Money and Harold L. Scott are proudly wearing freshman caps at Brown University.

Leslie B. Nichols, President of '25, is among the freshmen this year at Rhode Island State College.

Bernard H. Podrat is taking a Business Administration Course at Boston University.

Miguel A. Rodriguez has returned to Ponce, Porto Rico, where he intends to go into business.

William Rosenberg is taking a Business Administration Course at Boston University.

Gertrude M. Soule, Secretary of her class, is living at home in Saunderstown. Peaches has been "getting our number" in the telephone office.

Linda R. Steadman is playing the role of the "Voice with a Smile" in the Block Island Telephone Exchange.

Herman H. Voorneveld has been "resting up" at his home during the past year.

Laurence B. Woodhead is working as salesman at the Universal Auto Supply Company of Pawtucket.

Mabel A. Young is working in Boston.

25-26

The East Greenwich Academy turned out a successful football team, winning three games and tieing one out of five games played. Three-fourths of the preceding year's team were graduated, but with the material on hand Coach Perry's efforts proved successful. The only veterans to report were Captain Nichols, Luz and Smith.

The Academy opened its season by playing a 0-0 game with Killingly High School at Danielson, Conn. This was the hardest fought game of the season and held the crowd's enthusiasm to the finish. In the last few minutes of play the Killingly High School team had the ball on the Academy's half-yard line for a first down, because of a penalty, but our team held like a stonewall, and the opposing team did not get the touchdown that would have meant a victory for them. It was at this point that our team showed their strength and superiority over their opponents. This was the first football game for eight of our eleven men.

The second game of the season was against the heavy and experienced Stonington High School. Our team fought like beavers, and though beaten 13-7, our team showed great improvement over the preceding game and were praised highly by the coach at his usual Monday talk to the boys. Our touchdown came as the result of a successful forward pass from Murdock to Bearse.

Our next game was with the Colt Memorial High School team of Bristol. E. G. A. overwhelmed the opposing team by the score of 43-0. This showed how rapidly our boys were coming along. The eleven men were working like one perfect machine. Our substitutes played part of this game and gave a very good account of themselves. It was a real treat to see our team buck the line, run the ends, and work the forward passes.

On rode the E. G. A. horsemen to victory—a crushing defeat was administered to the Warwick High School. Our line showed what it was capable of doing by breaking through time after time and tackling the opponents backfield men in their tracks. The two or three first-downs which were gained against us was by means of the forward pass. The score—21-0 does not show how much better our team was even with all our substitutes playing part of the game.

The last game was played on our grounds with Cumberland High School. Our team fought hard for old E. G. A. and ended the season with a 21-0 victory. Our opponents were unable to buck our line and as a result did not make a first-down during the entire game.

The boys have a right to feel proud of their achievements. Every member of the squad played real hard football, and is to be congratulated for his splendid work.

The lineup was as follows:

Left end	Luz, Spears.
Left tackle	Dudley, Clevestrom.
Left guard	H. Horton.
Center	Baker, Card.
Right guard	Bryant, Freitas.
Right tackle	Nichols.
Right end	Bearse.
Quarter-back	Murdock, Appleton.
Left half-back	Piscatella, Welch.
Right half-back	Steere, H. McGraw.
Full-back	Smith, Olson.

BASKETBALL

Soon after our return from Christmas vacation the call for basketball men was issued. A large squad reported to Coach Perry, among whom was Captain Luz, the only veteran of last year's five.

The opening game was played with the Trade School of Providence and resulted in an easy victory for the Academy. The score was 43-18. Our next game was a return game with the same school. Once more our team proved to be the superior by piling up 33 points to our opponents 12.

The Commercial High School five of Providence was our next combatant. This game proved to be very interesting for the first half. Our team pulled away in the closing minutes of the game and were victorious by the score of 22-10.

We next encountered the School of Design and were defeated in a close and well-fought game by a score of 17-11.

Colt Memorial High School of Bristol was our next opponent on our home floor. After trailing for the first few minutes our team took the lead. The game finally ended 24-13 in our favor.

Then came the game with the La Salle Academy, which was very interesting, although we were defeated by the score of 18-7. Dudley was unable to play because of illness and Captain Luz played but a few minutes, having been put out on account of personal fouls.

The strong School of Design team defeated our team for the second time. Our boys were ahead the first quarter, but were unable to hold the lead.

Cumberland High School proved to be easy victims. Both our first and our second teams were able to score at will, and piled up 49 points to our opponents 8.

In a return game with Colt Memorial High School we were defeated 17-12, after leading the first part of the game.

Our next game with La Salle Academy proved to be one of the best and hardest fought games of the season. Although defeated 17-15 our boys played a brilliant game. Not until the last minute of play was La Salle Academy able to tie the score and finally cage the winning basket. The cheering of the students at this game helped our team immensely.

Those who played most of the games were Baker, Nichols, Murdock, Appleton, Dudley, Captain Luz, Welch, and Lenares. Much credit is due Horton, Smith, and Riviera for their work in some of the games.

The baseball season of 1925 proved to be very successful under the guidance of Coach Perry. Five of last year's veterans, namely, Captain Money, Martin, H. Godreau, Farnham, and MacGowan, answered the first call.

The first game of the year was played with the Plainfield (Conn.) High School and ended 10-0 in our favor. Henry Godreau pitched a no-hit, no-run game and Captain Money contributed a home run for the Academy.

Our next game was with Westerly High School and was called after the eighth inning because of rain. At this time Westerly was ahead 10-4.

Warren High School then defeated our team, 6-1. Our boys hit the ball hard but did not hit at the right time.

We next played Cumberland High School at Valley Falls. At the end of the fourth inning our opponents were in the lead, 7-0. By good steady fighting our team overcame the lead and won by the score of 16-7. This same team then came to our grounds only to have us hand them a 7-0 defeat.

Our next opponent was Warwick High School. We easily defeated this team both away and at home, by a score of 11-3, in both games.

The strong Attleboro High School team handed our boys a 14-4 reversal. Our team lead 4-3 for the first four innings, but Attleboro soon went ahead.

The Commencement game against Warren High School, a team which had defeated us before, proved to be very easy for our team. When our boys got through swinging the bludgeon they had piled up 14 runs.

So far this season, our team has made a very auspicious beginning, having won all games to date:

Early last fall the members of last year's basketball squad assembled and decided to earn some money with which to buy suits. On October 7th a food sale was given, and on November 20th the squad presented Richard Barthelmess in "Shore Leave" at the Star Theatre; the proceeds of which purchased the uniforms.

With four veterans and a number of able substitutes the season seemed a promising one to our coach, Professor Perry. At a meeting a little later in the season the Misses McClure and Fogel were unanimously voted to perform the duties as Manager and Captain, respectively.

The East Greenwich Academy girls' team opened the most successful Basketball season of its four years' existence, January 8th, at home, against the North Kingstown High School, defeating them 43-14. Miss Kaufman led in scoring with ten goals from the floor. The next victim was Providence Trade School, whom we also played on the home court. The final score being E. G. A., 55—P. T. S., 14.

January 15th, East Greenwich girls met with the Warwick High School team. The game was hard fought but the Academy girls came out on top with a score of 22-11. Miss Fogel led with six goals to her credit.

The next game was played at Attleboro, January 20th. It was a fast, exciting and well-played game, but the E. G. A. girls were greatly outweighed, the score being A. H. S., 35—E. G. A., 23.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL—Continued.

The girls were next to be challenged January 29th by Bryant & Stratton of Providence, at home. This game was a fairly easy victory with a score of E. G. A., 39—B. & S., 12. Miss Fogel led the Academy scorers with ten field goals.

A return game was played at Providence Trade School, February 3rd. It was a runaway victory for the Academicians. The final score was E. G. A., 38—P. T. S., 8. Miss Kaufman and Miss Fogel continued their excellent shooting.

The seventh game played by the home E. G. A. team was with South Kingstown on the home floor. The score at half time was 20-5 and E. G. A. sent its first string of substitutes in for the second half. The score was 31-15 in favor of E. G. A. No doubt the score would have been larger had the first team been kept in.

Pawtucket High School was the Academy's next opponent. This game was played February 16, at Pawtucket. It was one of the hardest fought games this season, the score being Pawtucket, 20—E. G. A., 10. A large contingent from E. G. A. was present to root for their team.

February 19th, the Academy played a return game with Attleboro. The game ended with a score of 41-34 in their favor.

Woonsocket was next to fall before the Academy sextet. This game was played February 23 on the former's floor. Miss Kaufman led with eight goals.

West Warwick—champions of R. I. in 1925—were met at the West Warwick Assembly Hall, February 26. The game was hard fought throughout; resulting in a score of 23-19 in West Warwick's favor.

TRACK, 1926

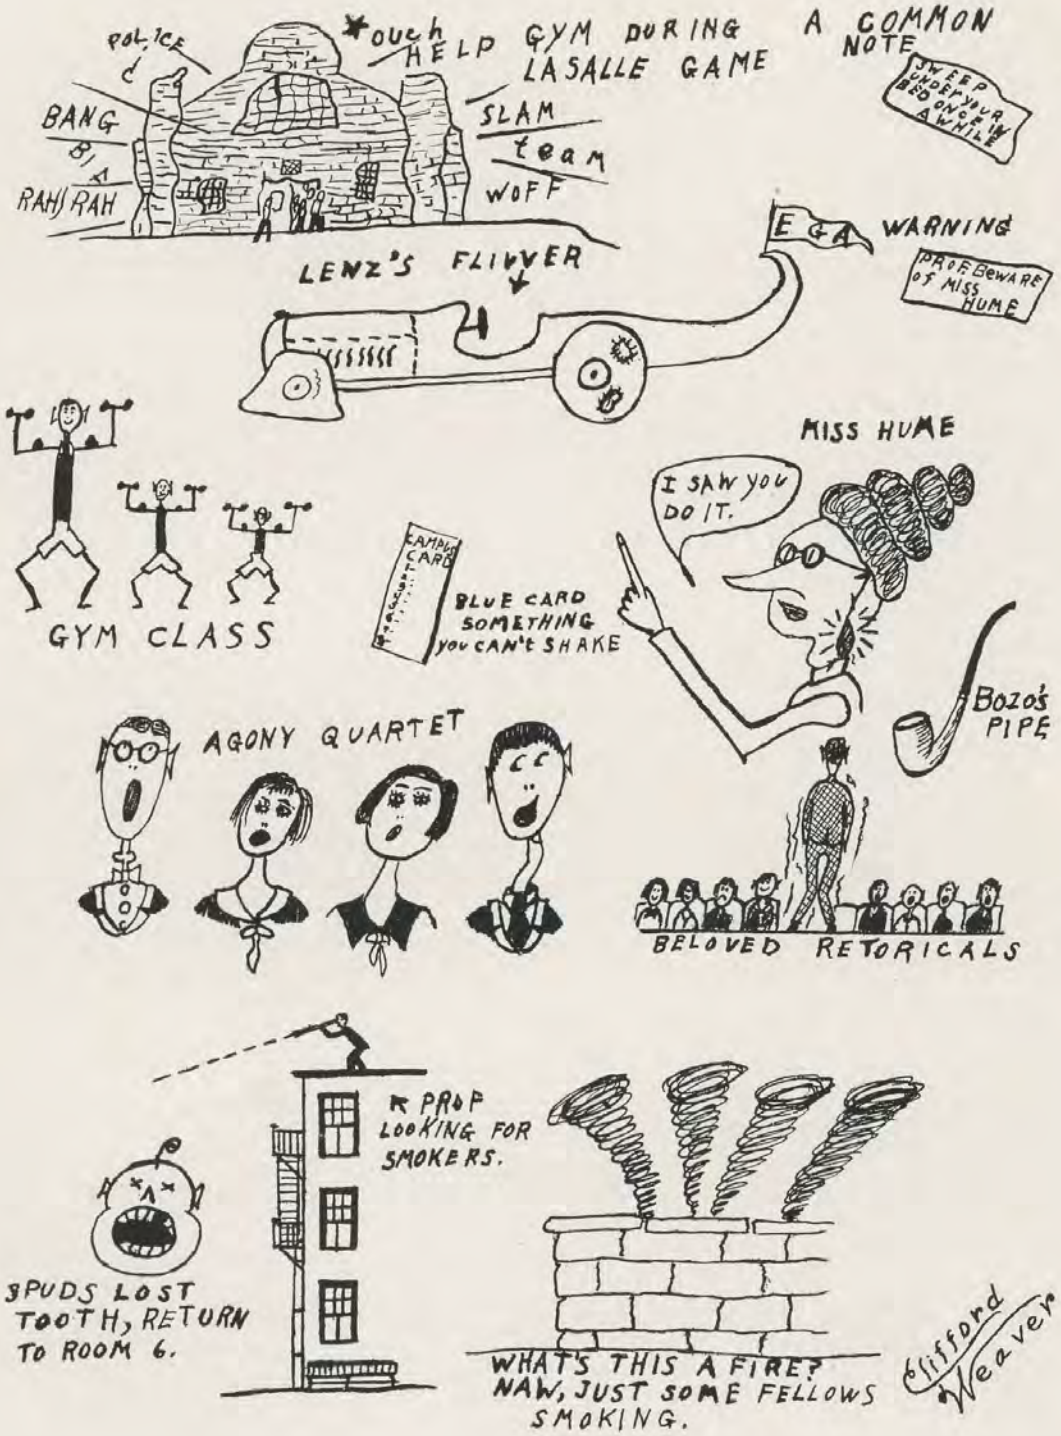

Our track team at the Kingston Track Meet scored 16 points. This placed us in fourth place. We might have landed a higher position if misfortune had not played its part and kept one of our stars from entering one of his favorite events. We had a large number entered but only a few took part. The following men scored points in the different events: John T. Nichols, first in the discus and second in the shot put; Philip Lenz, first in the high jump—height, 5 ft.-8 5/8 inches, a new record; Raymond Spears, second in broad jump—(tie)—distance, 19 ft.-5 inches; Alden Dudley tied for fourth place in the pole vault.

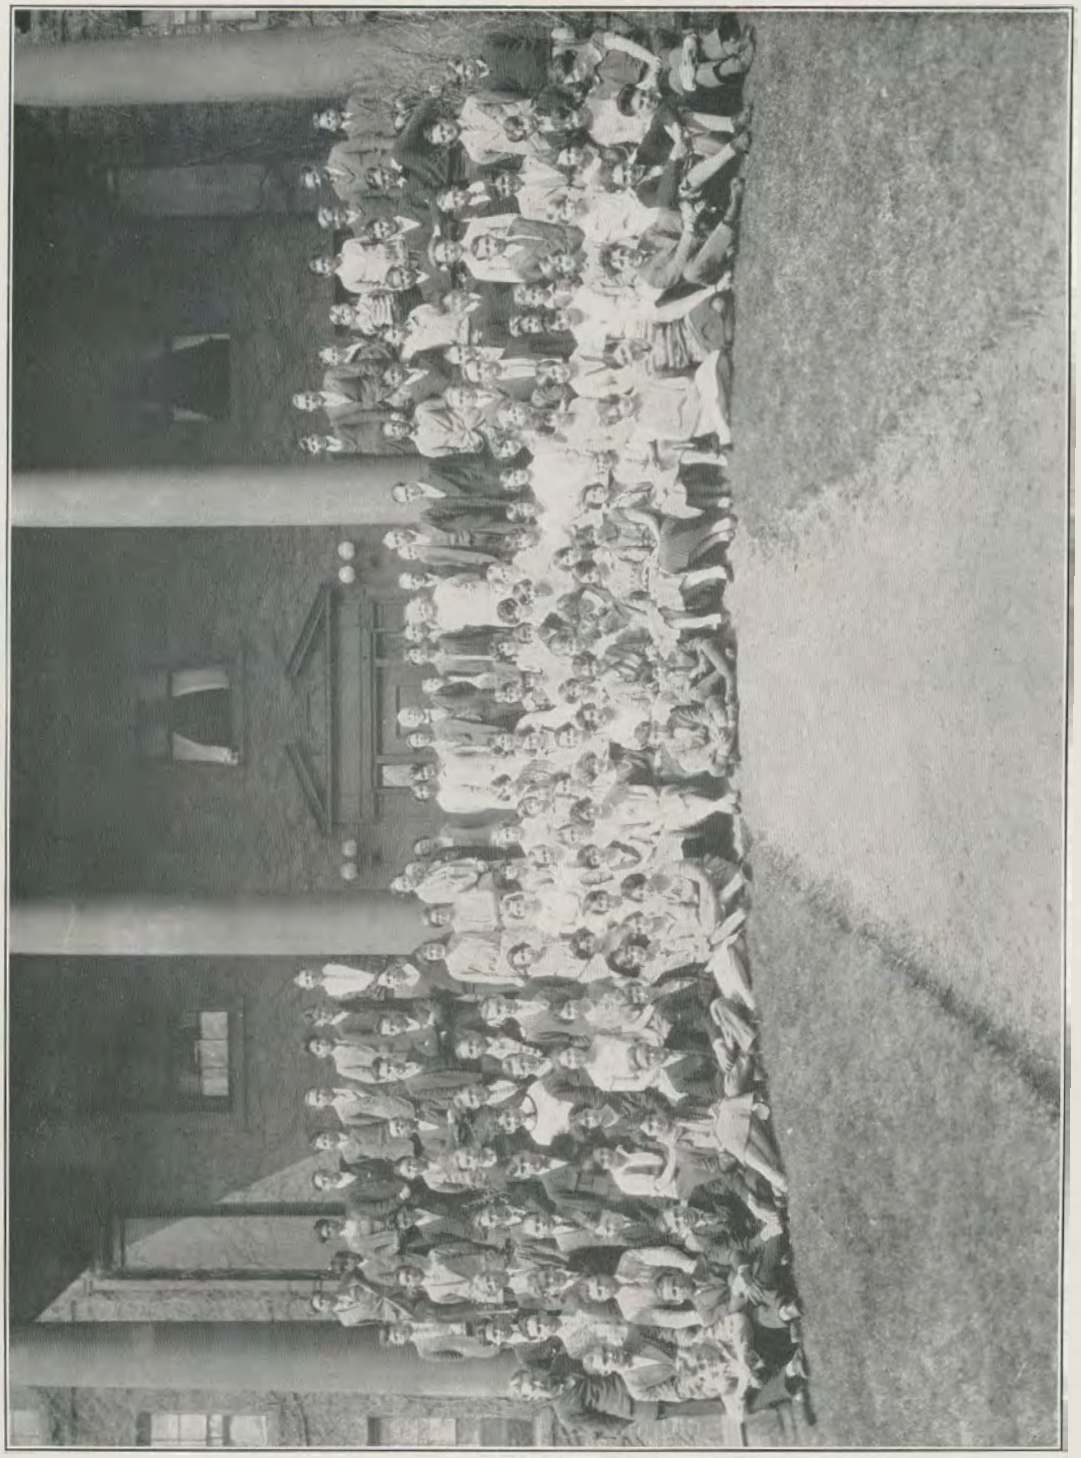

The above men are also entered in the Brown University Track Meet to be held May 31st.

THE SCHOOL GROUP

SOCIAL EVENTS

The first social event of the school year took place in Eastman Dormitory in the form of a Faculty reception to the Student Body. The parlors were attractively decorated with autumn flowers and ferns. An orchestra furnished entertainment throughout the evening. Members of the Senior Class acted as ushers and everybody found ample opportunity to meet everyone else. The committee in charge was: Miss MacBrayne, Chairman; Miss McClure, Decorations; Miss Tait, Refreshments; Mr. Perry, Music.

One week later, on October 1st, the Senior Class conducted a social in the Gymnasium. The program opened with a grand march, led by the Faculty advisers of the class. Numerous games and stunts were enjoyed during the evening, under the direction of "Tony" Piscatella, Chairman of the Committee. A most humorous feature of the evening proved to be the selecting of characters and scenery for an impromptu play. When all the chosen students were in the middle of the room the title of the play was announced to be "The Gathering of the Nuts." Refreshments were served by the committee, including Virginia Allen, Ruth Proctor, Alden Dudley and Elmer Swan. Blanche Kaufman furnished the piano music.

The Juniors were next to furnish a social evening. Dr. and Mrs. Cooper led the grand march, which opened the program. Progressive games kept everyone employed until ghostly figures appeared in the doorway, droning a solemn poem. These five grotesque characters with elongated white heads and extremely long arms were Lillian Johnson, Hazel Johnson, Alice Miner, Grace B. Gardiner and Elsie Ericson. When they had toppled out of the room a man on a bed was brought in by two Junior boys. A magician, who was introduced by Roy Card as an Arabic Mystic, followed them. By magical power the Mystic raised the man about two feet from the bed. Damiao Luz impersonated the Arab, and Charles Ladd the man who was hypnotized. More games were enjoyed and refreshments were served. Miss Blanche Kaufman furnished the music during the evening. The program committee consisted of Roy Card, Chairman; Doris Foster and Damiao Luz; the Refreshment Committee, Alice Miner, Chairman; Rolf Olson and Merit Welch.

The students who gathered outside the Gymnasium on October 29th, in readiness for the annual Hallowe'en Party, reminded one of assorted candies. All styles, sizes

EASTMAN NOTES

On the south corner of the campus stands a stately building with ivy covered walls. This building is known as the Eastman. It is a girls' dormitory and is the finest building on the campus, both inside and out. On entering this building, one walks into a reception hall with two parlors, one on either side. These parlors will long be remembered by the girls for the many good times which they have had in them.

In a pretty room in the corner of the first floor, our preceptress has her abode. After living with Miss MacBrayne a short time we began slowly to realize that "Mac" not "Mc" was the proper way to spell her name.

Then on ascending the stairs a long hall can be seen with a pencil sharpener at one end. This is one of the many conveniences which the dormitory affords. Down at the dark end of the corridor from which much mischief emits, reign the Jones twins. It is secretly believed by the rest of the girls that the twins are related to Thomas Edison. They are very inventive, you know. Barbara has invented a new kind of cup, or rather a new use for a teapot. She drinks her tea from the spout now. Be careful of hotels, Barbara, they're dangerous! Gladys has discovered a new disease. A rash on the face is now known as spring fever.

Next in the corner lives a quiet, little person, Miss Pentecost. Just be sick and out comes Miss Pentecost—excuse us we almost said Doctor—and away go the blues. The occupant in the next room is Florence Crowell. Flossie has two favorite songs, "Tea for Two" and "I'll Be Happy."

Down the hall, on the right, reigns a dignified Senior, Hope Becker. Hope often entertains the girls with her quick wit,

OLNEY NOTES

Opposite the Gym on the North side of the Campus is that great institution of learning, known as the "Olney." It is bounded on the East and West by cemeteries full of dead ones, but within its four walls there is plenty of life. It is the dead line for campus convicts and a watchtower for Profs who desire to check up on the Smokers' Brigade. Unfortunately this "Olney" is the only one of its kind, and our only regret is that there are not more similar institutions for wayward, wandering, boys. The charm of this great institution does not lie in its wavy outer walls, nor its pets, (?) nor its squeaking stairs, or its sanitary showers, and bathrooms, but in the good will, and cheerfulness, that radiates from its breezy and hilarious occupants.

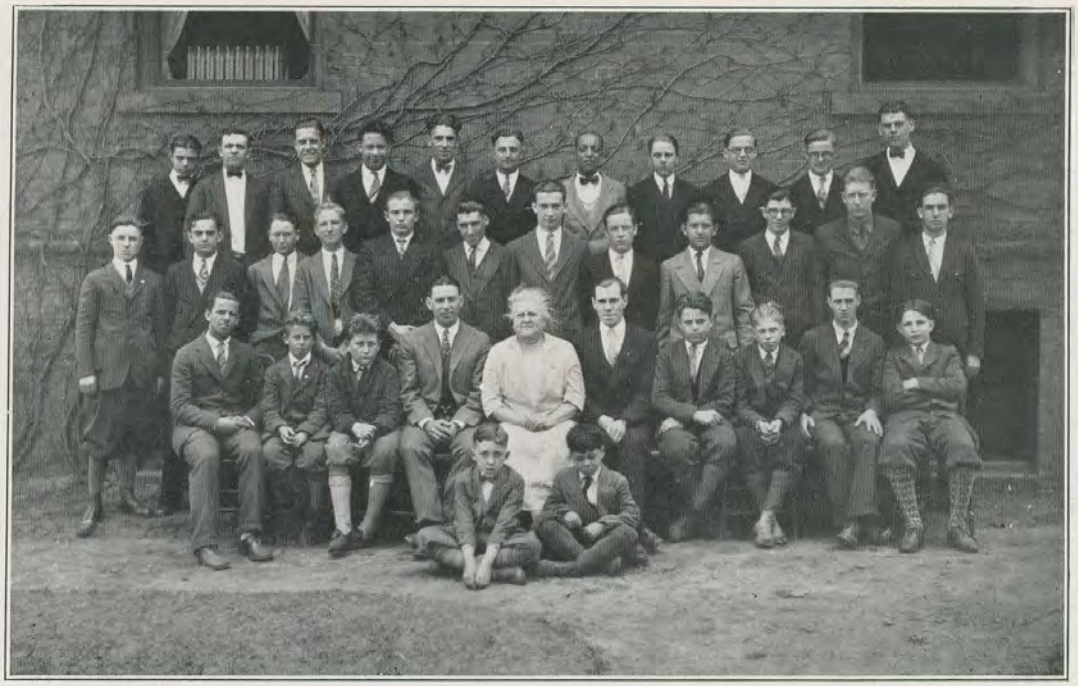

The first three rooms on the left, 1, 3, 5, by number, are occupied by the Rev. and Mrs. Schulmaier. We all remember the Rev's voice at the football games. (Like a fog horn.)

Room 2 was occupied by "Asthma," that undefinable, atrocious, jumpy piece of humanity. We were all sorry to see "Asthma" go shortly after Christmas.

Next to Room 2 is the abode of Luz, commonly known as "Boiler" or Shakespeare. He is the only sheik in the Olney. His roommate, Freitas, claims to be a resident of Bristol, but they say Bristol is a good place, so we doubt that he comes from there. Lately Daniel has been wandering from the fold, and has been seen with a mysterious girl.

As you go up the stairs and open the door of the first room on the right you will find Sucre, a studious boy from Panama. Sucre has been trying to knock off a "bimbo," but has not as yet succeeded.

WINSOR NOTES

Not many years ago there was constructed on the northeastern corner of our campus a large, stately building, which was given the name of Winsor Hall. This building has proven to be the most popular of the two boys' dormitories and this year has been filled to capacity.

We find our Coach, Robert Perry, residing in Room 1. He has gained his popularity by his faithful efforts in turning out successful teams. After returning from his Easter vacation, we soon learned that anyone entering his room had to leave his rubbers outside and thoroughly wipe his feet in order to preserve the newly varnished floor.

Pushing into the next room, we were overcome by odors of powder, perfume, hair-tonic and the like. No one else presides here except Mantella, our Star-boarder.

In Room 3 we find Jabez Perry, who hails from Attleboro, and quietly studies for the ministry. However, we have noticed that he returns from week-end trips with a new line of wise-cracks, and occasionally a new photo or two.

Guided by the wails of a screaming violin, we find ourselves in Joe Bringue's room. Folks! some day this chap will be a famous violinist (?) instead of the Winsor's baby sheik.

In Room 5 dwelleth the famous and honorable Golini and Piscatella. When this quiet (?) pair are not bending over a small table feeding fish they are engaged in other indoor sports. Golini may invariably be found chasing phantom mice.

Entering Room 6 we see Mitchell and "Spud" Lane. Mitchell is a great golfer,

CLASS OF 1924

David J. Adair, President of the class of '25, is married to Mildred Hardy, former Secretary at E. G. A. They are living at Dayton, Ohio.

Laura M. Albrecht is filling the position of bookkeeper at the East Greenwich Dairy.

Joseph Boran is a weaver in the Greenwich Mills.

Ethel C. Boynton is staying at home in North Coventry.

Hope Briggs is attending the R. I. College of Education and is "sporting" a diamond on her left-third finger. Congratulations, Hope.

Van Browne is studying dentistry at Tufts Dental College. Can you play checkers on teeth, yet, Van?

Ruth O. Burnham is studying in the New England Conservatory of Music.

John H. Carson is preparing for the ministry at Lehigh University. We were shown his ability as a "Bishop" in "Nothing But the Truth."

Willard B. Crawley is taking an engineering course at Brown. He may be building immense structures for the Town of East Greenwich some day. Who knows?

Stephen S. D'Attore is completing his Sophomore year at Bates College. He is one of the men who always make good. Good Luck! Steve.

Marguerite C. Dennison is still staying at home in East Greenwich.

Gertrude M. Ericson is doing fine work as a nurse in the Providence Homeopathic Hospital.

Marion L. Johnson was the Valedictorian of '24, and is now attending R. I. College of Education.

Blanche G. Kaufman is secretary at the Main Street Garage.

Violet E. Kettelle is attending Women's College, Brown, Providence.

Eunice H. Laird is attending Boston University.

Willard A. Lenz is studying at the Boston School of Practical Arts.

Gertrude Miller is working in a doctor's office in Providence.

Mac Newbold is now a much envied married man. His happy wife, née Mildred Asp, was a former student at E. G. A.

Laura H. Peirce is working at The Greenwich Mills.

John F. Pharnes is working for the East Greenwich Dairy.

C. Elmer Shogren has a fine position in the E. G. Branch of the Union Trust Company. Maybe he will start a bank of his own some day.

Russell T. Shogren has a position in a local store.

Cyril W. Sunderland and Robert M. Talbot are both working hard at R. I. State College.

Bertha L. Wright has a position in the bank. Not such a bad place, is it, Bertha?

Mabel N. Wright is in the office at the Apponaug Bleachery.

Paul A. Yannon is staying at home and giving his time to practicing.

Raymond W. Farnham, who took a Post-Graduate Course in '24, is a Sophomore at Marietta College, Ohio.

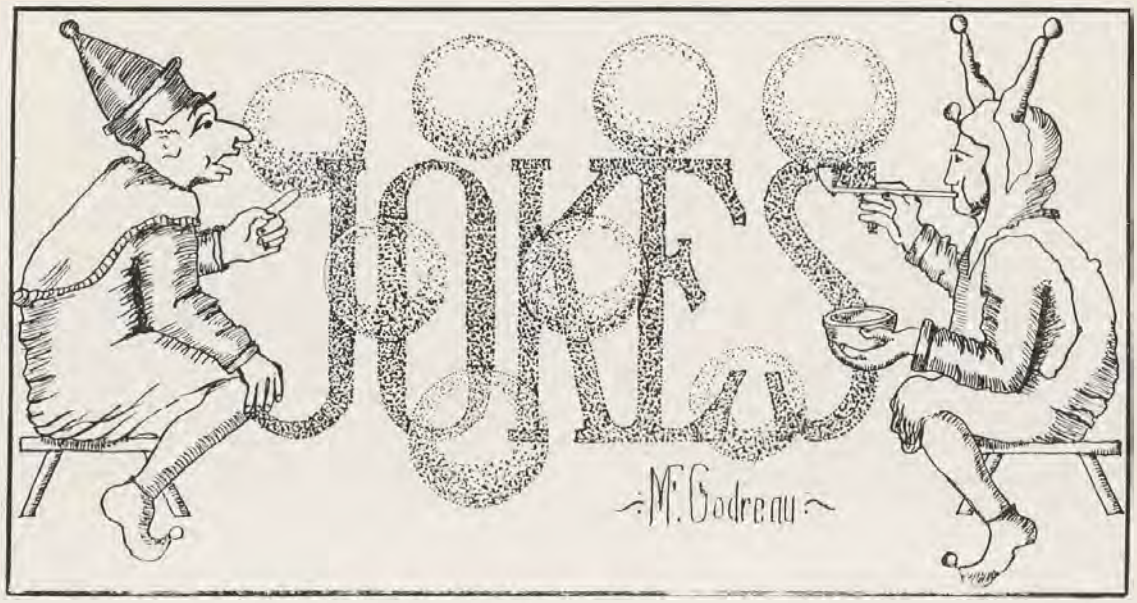

CLASS OF 1923

Santos P. Amadeo has transferred from Albion College to the University of Michigan. High honors continue to flow his way.

Paul J. Brown, President of '23, is still at Cedarville College, playing football, basketball and studying in between. A report of a recent game referred to him and Dave Adair, '24, as David and Goliath.

Oliver Butts, according to latest reports, has quit the Bachelor Life for good.

E. Ericson:—"Would you punish someone for something they hadn't done?"

Prof. Woodworth:—"Certainly not, that would be unjust."

Elsie:—"Then it's all right because I didn't do my algebra."

THE BOARDING SCHOOL VERSION OF "THE BELLS"

Listen my schoolmates and you shall hear
The ringing of bells both far and near ;
Should they stop ringing we would not know
Just when to stay or just when to go.

Some call us to meals three times a day,
Some from our rooms forbid us to stray,
Some call to classes five days a week,
While others bid us pleasure seek.

The chiming church bells call from play
On Sunday morn, to praise and pray.
Bells on Thursday at seven bid all
To prayer meeting in the dining hall.

By this I think you may clearly see
How we must know, both you and me,
Where each stroke doth bid us and quickly go
For being late is a sad crime you know.

The bells! the bells!
The ringing, Oh the ringing of the bells.

Doris G. Foster, '27.

especially when she hasn't heard from—(?)—in a couple of weeks.

The inhabitant of the next room is an oriental person, Grace B. Gardiner. Some day we strongly believe that Gardiner Incense will be the biggest seller on the market.

Next in order comes the "Pink Room," occupied by Miss Hume. We have learned to put on the soft pedal, when we venture through the corridors of the second floor.

Opposite from this room is the art gallery. In this room Dorothy Appleton and Lena Pasani have their good times. Dottie is our little vamp, (we wonder why she keeps her memory book hidden from us); while Lena has favorite kinds of automobiles.

In room 13 we find Miss Doris G. Foster. Whenever we visit "Dodo" we expect a lecture on morals for women or to hear "Oh, I'm so busy."

In the next room dwells Clara Westcott, who can usually be found playing sad songs on her uke and looking at the cracks in the floor. Yet at times she'll giggle for hours just because someone has sneezed.

Ascending still another flight of stairs we come to the quiet corridors of the third floor. In the corner on the right lives Miss Tait. This quiet lady comes from the Middle West and instructs us in such lively subjects as Latin and Greek.

In the next corner Hope Eddy had her room. This was our favorite "parking" place as Hope always entertained us with her witty stories.

At the other end of the Hall on the front side is Miss McClure. If you were to become acquainted with Miss McClure, you would find that she was a regular sport; she even sticks up for Ford.

Opposite this room lives a little Blond girl who claims to be a "Highland Lassie." Frances is our dormitory talking machine; once she cuts in on the conversation, the floor is hers.

In the next room Ellen Welch abides. Some of her serious thoughts of next fall are not necessarily of music nor of "business" friends. "Juanita" is the only other Senior in our dorm privileged to go down town unchaperoned.

To next year's girls we bequeath the Eastman rules and regulations, also our capacity for enjoying indoor sports and helping to make Eastman Dormitory a fine place to live in.

ALUMNI NOTES—Continued from page 43.

Gladys Barber is preparing for a "schoolmarm's" existence at R. I. College of Education.

Ruth E. Clark has a position in Providence. We see her around town occasionally.

William N. Curry is "rolling in wealth" at the Union Trust Company of Providence.

Ralph M. Howlett is continuing his studies in Boston University.

Kendall C. Knerr is another graduate who has taken the "fatal step" into matrimony.

Torston J. Miller has followed Horace Greeley's advice and "gone west" to Syracuse University.

Irving O. Miner is making excellent headway at Brown University. Honors float his way now even as when he was with us.

Olga L. Pharnes is at home at present.

Marion P. E. Robinson is a "blushing bride" now. The best of wishes, Marion.

Mary R. Scott is taking a Domestic Science Course at the State College.

Francis W. Spear is at present employed in the Outlet Store of Providence. The yell for "Cement Feet" still sounds in our memories of campus days.

WINSOR NOTES—Continued from page 39.

(from Block Island), and Lane is a great bearer of the truth—they surely make a fine couple.

Nebo King, alias Andrew King, holds down Room 7, directly over our remarkable heating plant.

Next we run across the loving pair, Daniels and Lenares. Daniels hails from Willimantic, the great railroad center and Lenares from Panama.

Going upstairs we find Clifford Weaver occupying the whole of Room 9. He is usually a nice, quiet sort of a chap. Yet some of the stories which he reads have a great effect upon him. Recently while reading from Quentin Durward he knocked the ceiling down in Prof. Perry's room below.

In the next room we find the early risers (?) Duncan Bryant and Jack Gill. This pair keep us supplied with fish stories and sea shore experiences as well as other things.

Entering Room 11 we find the third member of a mighty trio. (For further information consult the inmates of Room 16.) Baker may often be heard scuffling down the hall after "lights" to Room 13 where he joins the Senior Conclave.

In the next airy room we observe the almighty William B. Smith, a native of Jamaica, N. Y. Like Baker he is somewhat of a prowler. This chap believes in sleep for the deserving.

Walking through the next door we enter Room 13, home of the honorable Prof. Newbegin. Although numbered 13, this room is the Mecca, the center of attraction for the entire dorm at various times, much to the amazement of the "Democratic Convention" across the way.

In the next room, beautifully lighted, we find two theologians, namely; Ryan and Chadwick. Everything in this room seems to be for sale, for the furniture and fixtures are all tagged with their prices.

During the study hour of late, the dormitory has been disturbed by noises from "Bozo" Brinson's quarters across the way from Prof. Newbegin. This noise in Room 15 is created by certain members of English IV, debating over the high lights and such of the next day's assignments.

Around the corner in the next room we come upon "Brother" Appleton and "Father" Welch. These two friendly individuals went bankrupt trying to sell candy on the campus, in the gymnasium, and in certain dormitories.

The next room is occupied by Allan Durgin, who is a leader in our religious activities. He is a likeable, quiet chap, and is not responsible for the weird noises heard at any hour in this dorm.

Being pushed into the next room, and narrowly escaping bruises, we meet Walters, the only living imitator of Caruso in these parts. We fear his calling is Latin and not voice.

At last, around the next corner, we meet a man of good sense, Alden Dudley. This congenial chap found Olney not to his liking and moved over to the Winsor palace to be among the real men of E. G. A.

After all what more could one wish than to spend a year with this joyful group of young men! They are not a bunch of rowdies or rough-necks, but just a good gang ready for a good time, such as we had at our party before leaving for home at Christmas.

J. F. WALTERS,
C. W. WEAVER.

Chad:—"What did that fellow beat you up for?"

Bringue:—"Just plain jealously that's all. He got sore cuz I'm such a big, strong fellow an', He's nothin' but a little bit of a shrimp."

WHAT INCONVENIENCE

Welch (waiting on table):—"One of you fellows will have to eat your pie with a fork—the knives are all in use."

and colors of humankind were represented as well as spirits. Ghosts led the guests one by one through the terrors of the "Chamber of Horrors." We observed that the guests found it best to obey the requests of their ghostly escorts. When all were safely in the Gymnasium the entertainment committee took charge. A grand march, led by Dr. and Mrs. Cooper, opened this part of the program. While marching the students were given orders to unmask. Progressive games were followed by Ghost Stories, without which no Hallowe'en Revel is complete, told by Professor Davis, assisted by a ghost, who vividly dramatized parts of the stories. Future fates were foretold by a Gypsy. Dorothy Appleton and Barbara Jones entertained with musical numbers. Each guest was then supplied with half a black owl and instructed to find his or her partner for a short march which terminated at the doorway. There refreshments were served in cafeteria style. Prizes were awarded for costumes as follows: best dressed girl, Ethel Breard, in Spanish costume; best dressed boy, "Tony" Piscatella, also in Spanish costume; best homemade costume, girls, Clara Wescott, in orange and black costume; best homemade, boys, John Chadwick, as "Moses;" most original, Audrey Nichols, as a "Red Devil;" funniest, girls, Eloise Burns, as "Topsy;" funniest, boys, Thomas Abrams, in comic costume. The Gymnasium was cleverly decorated with ripe pumpkins, cornstalks, and orange and black crepe paper. George Brinson at the piano furnished the music. Miss McClure was general Chairman of the Committee. Both students and faculty completed the committee, to whom much credit is due for the excellent way in which the party was planned.

Another social in the Gymnasium was in charge of the Sophomore Class on November 3rd. Games, entertainment and refreshments were the features of the evening. The committees in charge were: Games, Ruth Brown and Harry Lewis; Refreshments, Elsie Jones, Lillian Pharnes, Wesley Barber and Harry Clevestrom.

The Freshman Class conducted a social on December 11th. A very fine and interesting program of entertainment was furnished by members of the class. It included a Dutch dance by Elizabeth Eldridge and Francis Brown; Harmonica selections by Frederick Lenz and Harold Shogren; also a pantomime, entitled "The Seven Ages of Man," acted by the following cast: Margarite Sharpe, Caroline Lincoln, Gladys Beaulieur, Lewis Daniels, James Walters, Harold Shogren and Curtis Eberstein. Games and refreshments were also enjoyed. The committee in charge of the entertainment were: Dorothy Appleton, Chairman; Etta Fogel, Marion Vaughn and Harold Klammer. Refreshments were served by Gladys Beaulieur, Mary Swain and Harold Shogren.

A number of parties were conducted by the Eastman girls. The boys from Winsor and Olney dormitories were their guests. On October 10th the girls entertained in the Eastman parlors. In spite of some trouble with the electric lights a happy evening was enjoyed by candle and lamplight.

An Armistice Day party was held in the dining room on November 10th. An open fire, around which the guests toasted marshmallows, was the feature of this party.

The usual Valentine Party was conducted by the girls in the Eastman Dormitory. Many a knot was tied and untied as the guests disentangled the cobweb which filled the two parlors and the halls. Each was rewarded, however, when he found a valentine on the end of his string. "A Trip Around the World" puzzled everyone for sometime, as they attempted to guess the places which

GIRLS' BASKETBALL—Continued from page 31.

At North Kingstown, March 1st, E. G. A. had a rather close game. The score at half time was North Kingstown, 15—Academy, 9; but nevertheless it proved a victory for the Academy. When the final whistle blew the score was E. G. A., 20—North Kingstown, 18.

An easy victory was taken from the School of Design of Providence on the Academy floor, March 10th. Practically no competition was offered by the visitors and the game was won by a 51-17 score.

The most spectacular and thrilling game was played in the Academy Gymnasium with the Pawtucket High School, runners for the state championship, on March 16th. It was a well-played game throughout and the Academy girls took the lead with a score of 11-4 in the first half. Never before was such enthusiasm shown over a girls' basketball game. The walls fairly rang with the cheers of the ever-loyal schoolmates. The sextet played its best and most brilliant game of the season. Pawtucket, however, pulled up their score in the last half and at the final whistle the score read 19-19.

Another fast game was featured at the home court March 19 against West Warwick. By virtue of this victory we claimed the runner-up position to Pawtucket for the state championship. Both teams played well, but the Academy came out the victor, 28-19.

March 26, the E. G. A. girls visited the Warwick High girls and returned with a 20-14 victory. This was the final game on our program and was a close one to the finish. Miss Kaufman was the high scorer with eight floor goals.

Sixteen games were played, four of which were lost and one was tied. We consider this season a success and we look forward to a more successful future.

were visited and which were represented by articles placed around the music room. A relay race in which a small match box cover was passed from nose to nose, proved to be the funniest event of the evening. The pleasant affair closed with refreshments and a song. The success of this party was due to the careful planning of Ellen Welch, Gladys Jones and Francis Crandon, with their adviser, Miss MacBrayne.

One evening after a basketball game the girls invited the waiters to pop corn in front of the open fire. A picture which will long remain in the memories of Eastman girls was that of "Brother Ryan," seated in the center of the floor, embracing a taboret upon which a bowl of pop corn rested. The pop corn was not in the bowl any length of time. The girls served hot chocolate at this impromptu gathering.

During Commencement Week, a reception will be given by Dr. and Mrs. Cooper to the Senior Class in Rose Cottage.

Across the hall in room 9 you will find Tom Cashman, a well-seasoned hick, fresh from the farm, otherwise known as "How bee yuh?" He claims to be the owner of a velocipede and an oilcan, but we doubt it. (We aren't from Matunuck.)

Further up the hall on the right is a Prof. (Woodworth by name) who rules with an iron hand. He hails from Vermont, and although his father is a minister, he has been running wild with his car. He claims his uncle wrote that renowned poem, "The Old Oaken Bucket." Well! Well!! Well!!!

Falling into the room across the hall we meet the honorable Harry Clevestrom who claims the name "The Woman Hater," but you'd be surprised, especially on free nights.

Up on the top deck in Room 14 one will find Spears the bass-profundo in the quartet of the Academy. He plays the trombone, but it was too much work for him to carry it down here. We hope Spears will accept our most sincere thanks for leaving it at home. Bearse, his roommate is a quiet fellow, especially when he is asleep. His folks came over in the Mayflower and settled in Centerville on Cape Cod. No, no one else has heard of it either.

Across the hall is another Cape Codder, Alec Steere, alias Beano. We had to tie him to fences to keep him from biting the dogs.

The next room is 11, and here Barton throws his clothes. This youth's hair will never get red, because ivory does not rust. He is one of the Gillette Bros. "Wouja let me have this, or wouja let me have that."

Last, but not least is Rivera in Room 17. He is from Panama, and very quiet and studious. He and Sucre are going to enter M. I. T. in the fall, and we know they will be honor students.

There are not many in our dorm, but quality and not quantity is our motto. We will all be sorry when the day comes to part, as many of us may not see each other again, but, here's wishing everyone the best of luck and success in all of Life's Battles.

HARRY G. CLEVESTROM.
