

CRIMSON
1961

The Avenger, pride of East Greenwich High School, has been chosen by the Class of 1961 as the theme of the 1961 Crimson.

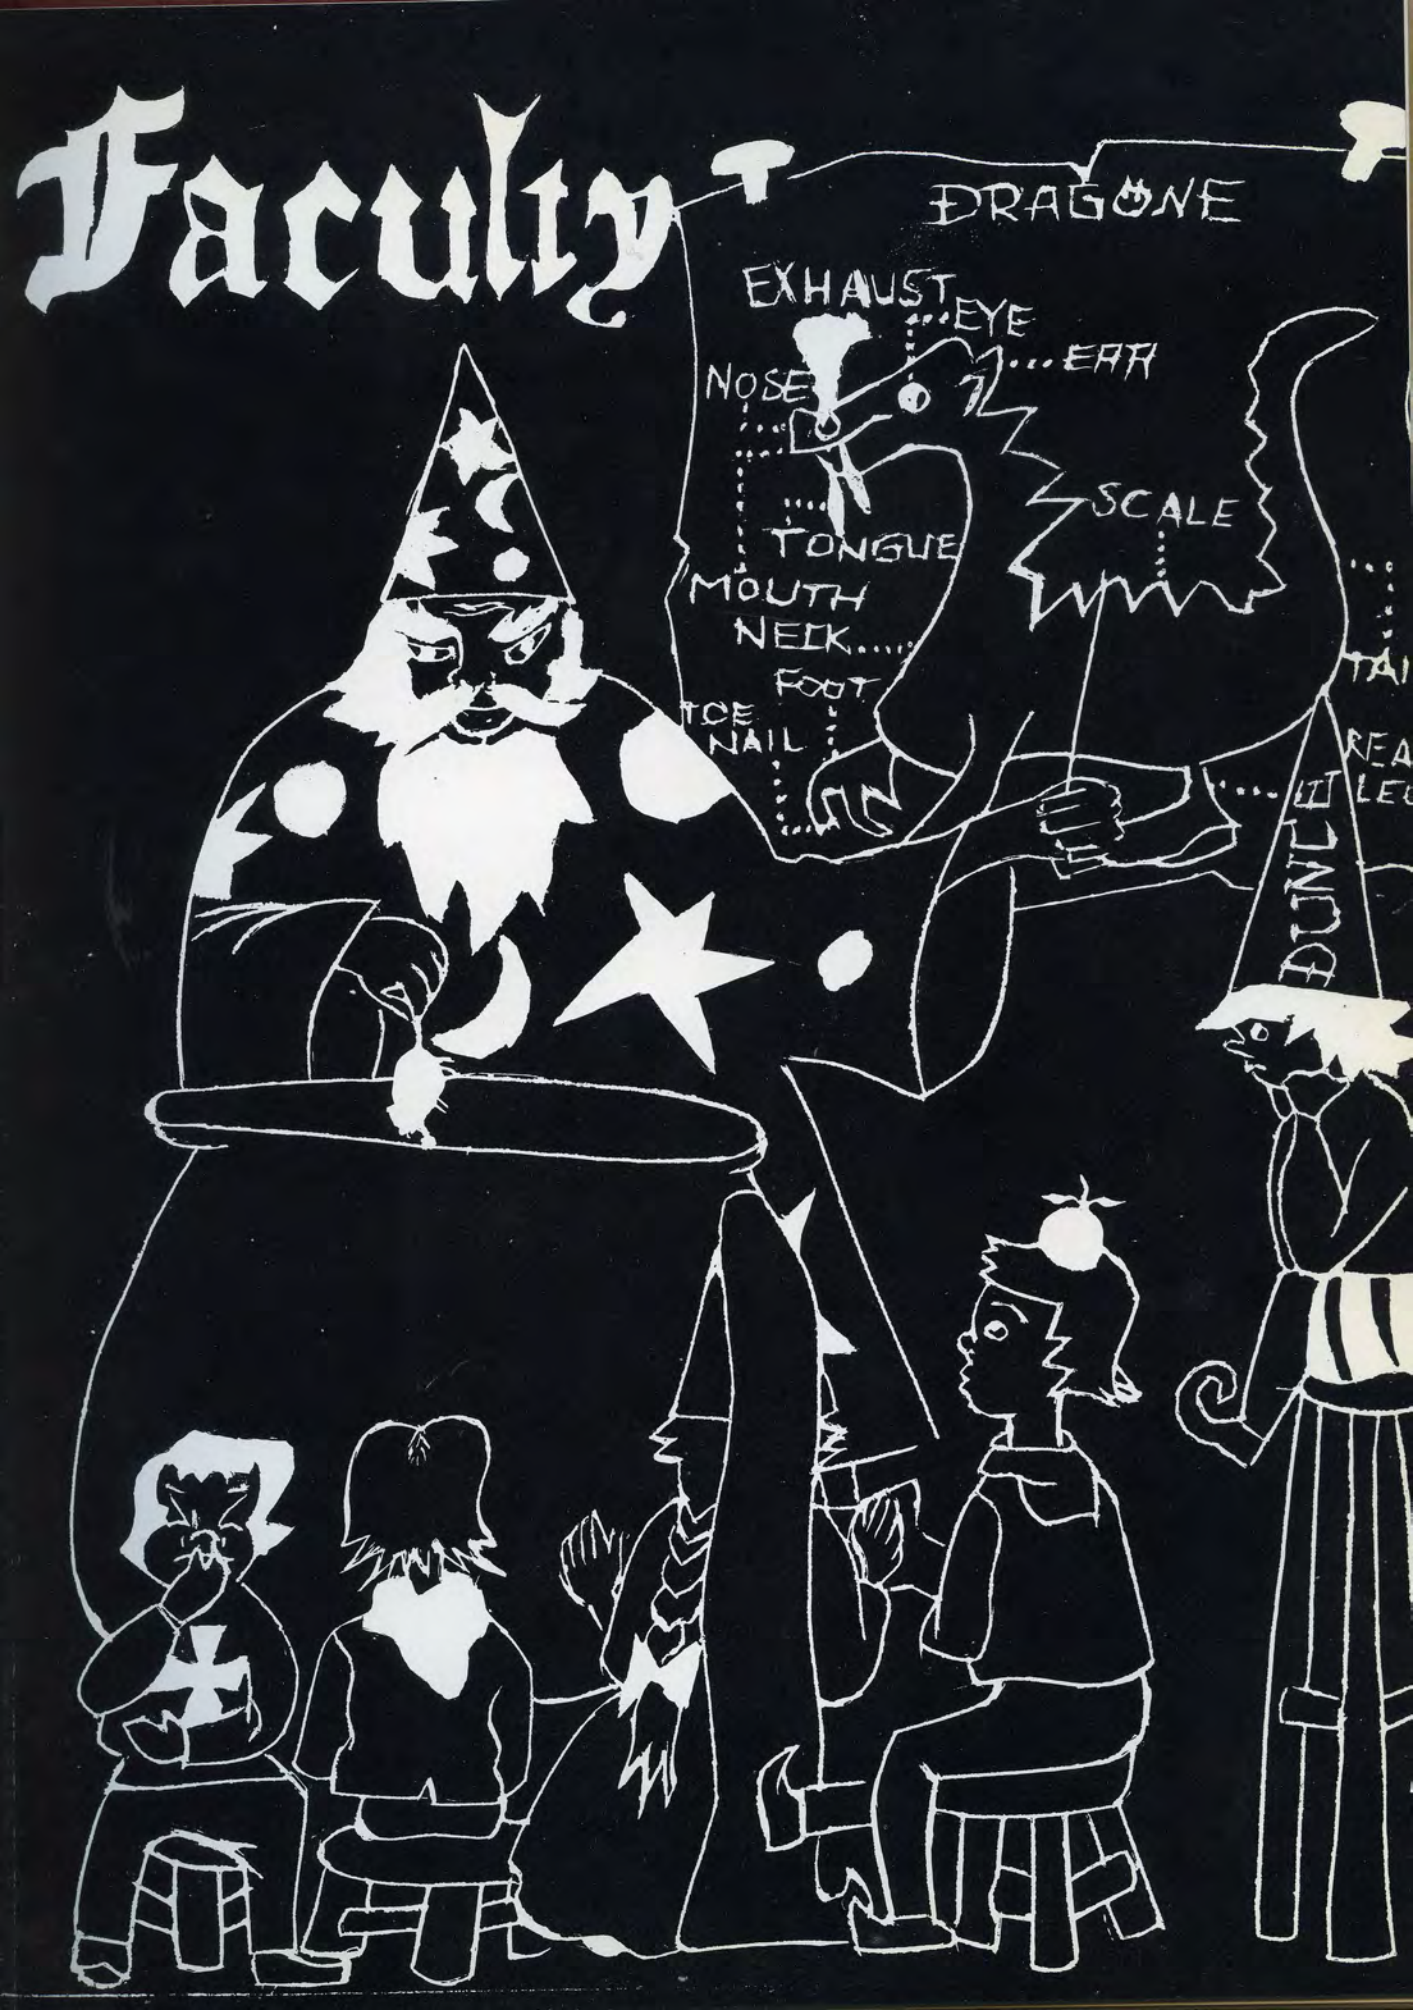

A red knight astride a white charger, symbolizing bravery and strength, has always been an ideal for our student body. It represents our courage and willingness to uphold the honor and standards of East Greenwich High School, come what may.

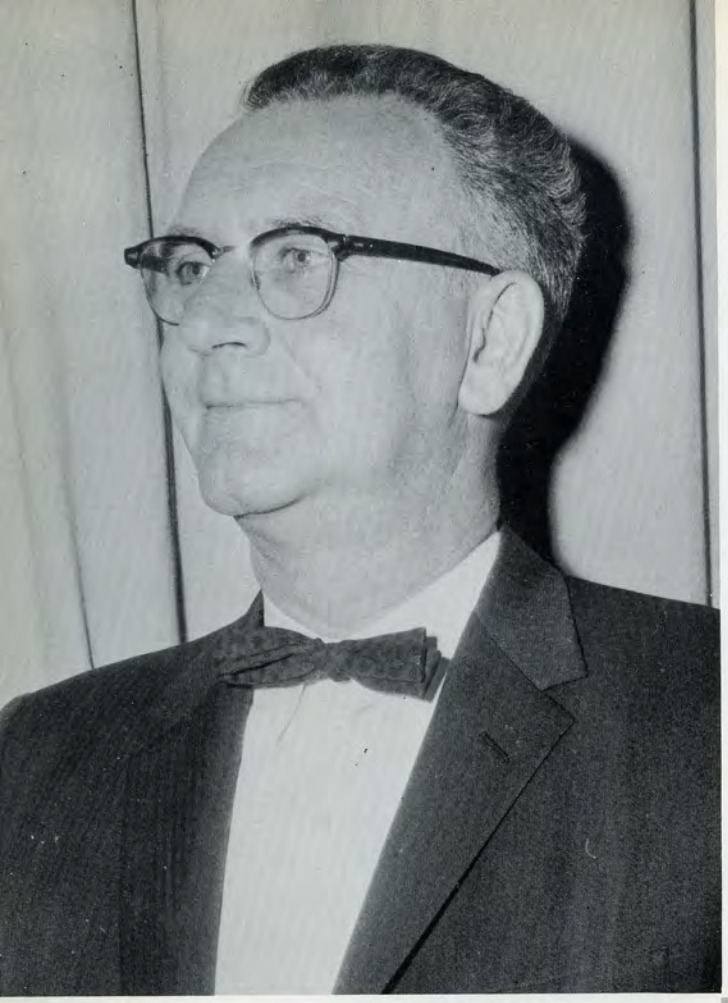

Through the past four years Mr. Anderson has helped to guide us over many of the hurdles which our high school years have presented. Therefore, it is with deep gratitude that we, the Class of 1961, do dedicate our yearbook to him, and present him with the first copy of the 1961 Crimson.

For the patient counsel which Mrs. Dillon has unselfishly given in the preparation of our yearbook, we are most grateful. It is in appreciation of this guidance that we present her with the second copy of the 1961 Crimson.

OUR SUPERINTENDENT

Congratulations to the members of the Class of 1961 and best wishes for your success.

Your graduation from East Greenwich High School occurs at a vital point in American history. During the next decade the traditional freedoms of America and the free world will continue to be under attack. These freedoms must survive if the American way of life is to remain in existence. Lend your strength and your prayers to this endeavor.

RUFUS A. BRACKLEY

To the members of the class of 1961 goes my sincere hope that you will find success and satisfaction in the world in which you are to live. Clear-eyed and clear-thinking young men and women are needed if our society is to continue its rapid rate of development and position of world leadership. Remember education is essential to human dignity, freedom, and self-realization. Develop your individual potential to its fullest and reap your fair share of success and happiness.

CLASS HISTORY
(1961)

That long awaited day arrived
For which we'd often hoped and strived.
'56 was the first of our high school years,
Mixed with spirit and pride, we had our fears.

Our 8th grade year was one to remember,
We were busy with plans from the 1st of September.
There were many things that had to be done,
But doing them was half the fun.

When the election of our officers came,
To select the best was our chief aim.
Ed Kovac was chosen to head the list;
Linda Lintlop was ready to assist.

For our keeper of notes Lynda Hegburg was fine,
While Poppy Jones kept our funds in line.
Sponsoring the Spring Frolic was loads of fun;
Our Maypole was enjoyed by everyone.

Our 10th grade leader was Donnie C.
Who carried out his job to the n'th degree.
Then Linda Lintlop was second once more
And she accomplished every chore.

Lynda Hegburg kept the notes for us
And did it well, without a fuss.
The job of keeping our treasury straight
Went to Eddie K. who really did rate.

In our Sophomore year we won a basketball game,
Which brought our classmates lots of fame.
We beat all the classes in E. G. H. S.
And reigned as champs; we were the best.

Our Sweetheart Dance was a grand affair
With hearts and cupids everywhere.
The throne on which we worked for hours and hours
Was fashioned with hundreds of colorful flowers.

After a summer of fun, laughs, and cheer,
We were ready to start our Junior year.
For the most part our officers remained the same
Except, as treasurer, Chuck Knapp gained fame.

We still had our decals with which to contend.
Would the selling of them ever come to an end?
We decided a car wash would do the trick
To increase our funds and do it quick.

Our Junior Prom had a Parisian theme,
With a sidewalk cafe completing the scheme.
The houses and shops made colorful sets,
While glittering stars created romantic effects.

Summer vacation time was quickly spent.
Back to school, as Seniors, we proudly went.
As Seniors we thought we'd be rushed and busy:
Yet we never guessed there'd be so much activity.

First upon officers we had to decide;
We chose Donnie Carcieri again to preside.
We kept our same officers right down the line;
Judging from last year, we thought they'd be fine.

In keeping with Senior tradition and custom
We had a dance for Freshmen just to say "Welcome."
Then the yearbook and pictures were our main concern
With deadlines to meet and money to earn.

Selling refreshments at games was another chore;
With all our supplies we sold food galore.
And even before all our bills had been paid
Plans for our Christmas Dance had to be made.

Our Christmas Dance had a seasonal air;
We even had "good ole" Saint Nicholas there.
Our decorations and sleigh made a lovely sight;
The Snow Court completed "Wonderland by Night."

From Christmas to May, things were quite still
But yet we had many goals to fulfill.
Graduation Day was drawing near;
We knew in just a few weeks it would be here.

On Ivy Day we Seniors attained
The right to walk down the Ivy Chain.
Dressed in class colors on Moving-Up-Day,
We wove through the rows in a solemn way.

Our Senior banquet was a gala event;
It was an evening of fun and merriment.
Upon receiving diplomas graduation night
There was evidence of both tears and delight.

We discussed the place and what to bring;
It was time to have our one last fling.
We'd had a class picnic last year and the rest,
But this one was by far the best.

We were now alumni, and on our own;
Our high school days were over and gone;
But we would remember with a sigh,
Those fun filled years at East Greenwich High.

CLASS WILL

We, the class of 1961, being of sound body, if not of mind, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament, and hereby bequeath and devise.

To Mr. Brackly the good news that the Paris Fashion Houses dictate "skirts will be longer next year."

To Mr. Anderson the record "Walk! Don't Run".

To Mr. Behan a book entitled Learn to Draw.

To Miss Butler a parking lot attendant to park her car correctly.

To Miss Byrnes all the paper supplies we have borrowed.

To Coach Carcieri a year's supply of plaster of Paris for future football injuries.

To Mrs. Dillon, Chester.

To Mr. Dyer a used-car-lot sign to put in front of his house.

To Mr. Ferri a lasso to help snare all those seniors in the mornings.

To Mr. Greene a butterfly net to catch all those words in.

To Mrs. Hammond a new "view from room 3."

To Mr. Hand a glove.

To Mr. Harley a supply of paper clips to fiddle with in P. A. D. class.

To Mrs. Harley a demonstrator to show "How to Iron a Gym Suit Properly."

To Mr. Iannazzi a class of all boys. No more of those stupid girls to bother you, Mr. Iannazzi.

To Mrs. Long a lifetime membership in Mrs. Curtis' hot rod club.

To Mrs. Morris some new music to give variety in Glee Club.

To Mr. Morris a 34-line half sheet of paper.

To Mr. Regini a brand new Pilgrim suit.

To Mrs. Roderick our vote as one of the ten best dressed women in the world.

To Mr. Romano a set of weights so the "muscle boys" can't move his Renault.

To Mrs. Tibbits a fly swatter.

To Mrs. Tabor a record of stereophonic silence.

To Mrs. Curtis a black leather jacket to go with that "hot rod" of hers.

To Mrs. Hadfield our best wishes for future years at E. G. H. S.

I, Pete Anderson leave.

I, Betsy Balsam, do leave to Pamela Resch my shadow to walk to school with every morning.

I, Joyce Bradley, leave a space in the high school for my sister Lorraine.

I, Richard Brennan, leave a 22-foot aluminum stale to Steve Owren.

I, Nancy Brusci, do leave to any deserving junior one adding machine to total all the pennies, nickels, and dimes in the Student Council Treasury.

I, Don Carcieri, do leave my brother something.

I, Sandra Casavant, leave my love for Marines to any girl who can stand them.

I, Ronnie Clarke, leave to Jim Kovac my favorite tennis racket.

I, Arlene Coleman, leave to Pat Mello my hot, little Corvair so she can pick up the boys in front of Eldredge.

I, John Conners, leave my title as "Class Clown" to Bob Bishop.

I, Sally Cormier, leave to Rose Ann Raimando my seat in P. A. D. class.

I, Karen Davies, leave my great height to Elaine Riccio.

I, Sandra Daylor, do leave my quiet ways to my brother, Charlie.

I, Carol Dietz, do leave the school in danger of my brother's entrance next year.

I, Sam Doughty, leave to anyone who wants to make a career out of high school, my past scholastic record.

I, Fred Duncan, leave a book entitled, How to Get Along With Your Girl to any guy who has troubles.

I, George Ellis, leave my love for cheerleaders to Mike Fuller.

I, Carole Gardiner, leave my title as Carole Gardiner, "Senior" to Carol Gardiner, "Junior".

I, Bobby Gardiner, leave my football shirt to anyone who wants it.

I, Bob Gelineau, leave my ability to do algebra to my brother, Dick.

I, Alan Haddad, leave to Bill Munson a book by Mr. Iannazzi entitled Dates Don't Make Touchdowns.

I, Norma Hathaway, leave my love for laughing and title, "Giggles," to Sandy Doyle.

I, Lynda Hegburg, leave my naturally curly hair to Sally Sargeant. No more permanents, Sally!

I, Elsie Henrikson, leave my love for tall boys to any girl who likes to carry a stepladder.

I, Jean Hodor, leave to Leslie Blanchard the task of cleaning Mrs. Harley's office. Have fun, Leslie!

I, Billy Horan, leave Mr. Iannazzi's affection for me during football practice to Mike Boesch.

I, Carol Huling, leave my love for Student Council Presidents to any girl who is lucky enough to catch one.

I, Dorothea Iannone, leave my old Glee Club music to Louise Pike.

I, Poppy Jones, leave to next year's literary editor a list of "unused quotes." Good luck!

I, Janice Juras, leave my chain for rings to Karen Mastracchio. Only one ring at a time, Karen.

I, Mary Ellen Kennedy, leave my pixie haircut to Joyce Hannah.

I, Audrey Kettelle, leave my crazy laugh to Peggy Scully.

I, Chuck Knapp, do leave to Meredith Morrissey four years of begging and pleading for class dues.

I, Ed Kovac, leave the rebounding on the basketball team to Rolland Jones.

I, Dick Lewis, leave my lunch room patrol to Sally Sargeant.

I, Linda Lintlop, leave to my brother, David, a complete book of dancing instructions. Maybe I should leave that "certain someone" for inspiration, huh Dave?

I, Gary Lussier, leave my sister, Sue.

I, Joe Malvinni, leave East Greenwich High without a Malvinni to leave something to.

I, Barbara Marden, leave a poor, "bedraggled" Mrs. Curtis to anyone who likes to put on notices.

I, Barry McKenna, leave my title as tallest boy in school to Dickie Byrd.

I, Cheri Moon, leave my love for tall, blond boys to my sister Marcia.

I, Bob Mortin, leave my two brothers, Chuck and Greg.

I, Ann Nappa, leave my seat in bookkeeping to Jean Forcelli.

I, Diana Naysnerski, leave my old set of bongo drums to my brother, Steve. Now we can both drive Mom and Dad crazy.

I, Jim "Big Daddy" Newcombe, leave my football pants to Joe Carcieri, Steve Erinakes, and Jim Dramby.

I, Larry Norcott, leave my place at the "Senior" lunch table to Ken Olson.

I, John Novosad, leave my old French tests to my brother Mike. Good luck next year.

I, Anita Olson, leave my seat in shorthand to Daveda Pezzuco. Learn those brief forms, Daveda.

I, David Olson, leave my brother, Ken, to anyone who wants to give him a ride to dances.

I, Cindy Osborn, leave my brother, Jack, the fun I had in my senior year.

I, Alan Payne, leave my place in the refill line at lunch to Eddie Briggs.

I, Carolyn Polis, leave to Shirley Lukowicz all the boys who go by in the morning while we are waiting for the bus.

I, Carol Raddatz, leave, hoping my sister Kay has the honor of being an East Greenwich High School Varsity Cheerleader.

I, Linda Riccio, leave my sister.

I, Linda Rice, leave my love of convertibles to anyone who loves cold winter nights.

I, Bruce Roberts, leave to the next senior class a new, revised book of excuses.

I, Toby Rosenberg, leave my old Roberts' buttons to Ray Siiro.

I, Gayle Ryan, leave to my sister, Sheila, my little black book.

I, Ed Sherer, leave to Bill Dalton, my argumentative ways with Mr. Regini.

I, Hazel Sisson, leave to anyone who wants it, the privilege of going to school.

I, Susan Spencer, leave my long blonde hair to Andrea Timpson.

I, Dave Weindel, leave my frog feet to any future skin diver in East Greenwich High School.

I, Kathy Wesson, leave to Rickey Wright the privilege of being one of the last in the alphabet.

I, Peter Yost, leave my big iron (T square) to Gary Howland in the good "ole" shop class.

In witness whereof we, the class of 1961, hereby set our hand and seal on this, the twenty-sixth day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-one.
